Anna Von Reitz: Karen Hudes, The World Bank, and Your Gold — Restoring Primacy of We the People as Creditors Against the Cabal

The Truth About Karen Hudes, The World Bank, and Your Gold

As the Federal Code Title 5 makes very clear the World Bank and IBRD were two of the three (Federal Reserve being the third) banking cartels that caused the bankruptcy of The United States of America, Inc. in 1933.

As is also clear, the American People were the Priority Creditors of the bankrupt federal corporation (See House Joint Resolution 192 and the Emergency Banking Act of 1934) and also clear that the banks were Secondary Creditors.

When that bankruptcy was finally discharged and settled the World Bank received the actual gold— the physical assets confiscated from our ancestors and which we are heir to— as its part of the loot. Notice that the gold should have come back to the Priority Creditors—the American people— but one the Secondary Creditors, The World Bank, claimed it instead.

For seventy years that gold was used as the backing and basis for all the Federal Reserve Notes and loans. The Federal Reserve, of course, received all the interest and profit generated as its part of the loot. And we, the legitimate heirs, received nothing. Zip. Nada. Not even a thank you. This is because the Federal Reserve and its minions serving as corporate officers of the new federal “governmental services corporation” made sure that we were misrepresented and that our political status was changed without our knowledge or consent to that of a mere “inhabitant”— a British Crown subject.

And what right would a British Crown subject have to inherit American gold? Everything was going along according to plan.....and then, the Americans finally figured it out. It must have been a tough night in Brussels. The World Bank was caught red-handed in possession of the stolen goods, just like a Pawn Shop owner in the same position, so they turned to their trusted attorney, Karen Hudes, to get them out of this bind. Karen Hudes is a card-carrying member of the Bar Association. Hello? What do lawyers do best?

Phi Beta Iota: Karen Hudes is a graduate of Yale Law School and she worked in the legal department of the World Bank for more than 20 years. When she was fired for blowing the whistle on corruption inside the World Bank, she held the position of Senior Counsel. See Karen Hudes online. On balance we find that Hudes has a useful deep view on one aspect of the problem but does not see the entire problem from the indigenous people who are the root creditors, to the Deep State managed by the Rothschilds, Vatican, and Chabad Supremacist Cult using Central Banks and banking institutions as means of control. Ultimately all government debts (at all levels of governance) to all artificial entities need to be called into question.

First, she lied about being a Whistleblower, to gain misplaced attention and confidence. Then she lied about no less than four schemes she promoted as a means to hide, stash, cash, or give away the purloined gold belonging to the Americans. When I called her on it on Facebook, she “unfriended” me in record time and hasn’t had the common decency to directly communicate ever since.

And now she is just lying some more, apparently in an effort to find a scapegoat for the still more outrageous and (she hopes) final plan to give our gold to an organization calling itself the “County Executives”. There’s just one little problem, Karen. Those aren’t our “Counties” nor are they our Executives”. They are officers of a colluding conglomerate being run by the brand new UN-sponsored “FEDERAL RESERVE” and they have (1) no public office; (2) no public oath; (3) no public bond; and most importantly— no relationship to us, the actual living people to whom both the gold and the interest from its investment is owed.

So the World Bank has colluded once again with the new brand of “FEDERAL RESERVE” to cheat the American people in violation of every Public Law and fiduciary duty on Earth.

Now, I would like to address a number of additional, almost gratuitous lies told by Karen Hudes about me, woman to woman.

(1) Karen has variously styled me a “Vatican agent” and as an “advisor” to the Vatican. This is probably because Benedict XVI asked me to act against her and her banker bosses and return the American property to the Americans it is owed to. What a concept!

In point of fact, I have never, ever been associated with the “Vatican” at all. I have a one-on-one relationship with the Pope that totally bypasses the Roman Curia, much less the Vatican—-because I agreed with him that American assets should be returned to Americans and not retained by criminal banking cartels such as the one she works for.

Oh, and as for me being “one of the evil Jesuits”— I am a lifelong, card- carrying Lutheran. Anyone who doubts it can call up the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Black River Falls, Wisconsin, and satisfy themselves on that point all day long. If I am a Catholic, Hitler was a Jew.

2. Karen has accused me— me, specifically, as working to prevent or delay the so-called “Global Reset”— I suppose I should be flattered that anyone thinks a Great-Grandma from Big Lake, Alaska, has such power?

The truth is much more pragmatic. The bankers she works for have been holding up the Reset while they wrangle for immunity for themselves. After all the misery and death and destruction they have caused, after all the crimes they have committed, they want guarantees of immunity for their precious little selves and their ill-gotten gains.

The World Bank is, after all, willing to give anyone the gold, once it was proven that it was stolen and belonged to the Americans. The Federal Reserve is still hoping that we won’t demand the interest and profit they purloined, but, yes, that’s due to be paid out to the American people, too.

What do you all say? There are three options:

(1) take them all out and gibbet them as pirates—because that’s what they are;

(2) forgive them all their transgressions because they are whining a lot and promising to be good boys from now on;

It all comes down to the same thing. This entire planet has been controlled by a small number of people generation to generation, and depending on how diseased or enlightened their minds were, all people have benefited and suffered the same.

We have public roads and bridges and hospitals and libraries, schools and police and fire protection services, telephone and electrical and gas and sanitation and a great many other things now as a result of that “evil” Network of Global Control. And for all that, we can be grateful and supportive, without being enslaved.

At the same time, we have also suffered endless wars and privations, continual “pot stirring” and vicious wrong-headed political, social and religious indoctrinations, war-mongering and profiteering, fraud and injustice—and in the recent round, press-ganging, enslavement, inland piracy, unlawful conversion of assets, personage, barratry, and undermining of our lawful national governments.

It’s time for the people of the world to cut the mustard and pull the rugs out from under the corporations causing these miseries. Corporations have no natural right to exist. When they cause harm to living people, they are all subject to liquidation. Think of Dorothy, the Wicked Witch of the West, and a humble bucket of water. That’s liquidation.

The ones holding the final kill-switch on all corporations are the creators of corporations— the Roman Curia, and, without putting a real sharp point on it, the Pope.

This is why all paths still lead to Rome and why the Pope’s decision to take action to rein in the banks has brought such a lot of vicious propaganda against the Roman Catholic Church and anyone associated with the Church— even a Lutheran who happens to agree with the Pope about returning American property to Americans.

The corporations, especially the banks, are completely out of hand—but we have our buckets of water close by. It only requires the will and the courage to enforce the Public Law and The Constitution as it applies to us as “free sovereign and independent people of the United States”.

Much discussion has been generated by the filing of a $279 trillion dollar commercial obligation lien against the American Bar Association, the International Bar Association, and the Department of Justice (Inc.)” for their part as undisclosed foreign bill collectors implementing this incredible fraud scheme against the American people. That lien is just one bucket of water and it is not “paper terrorism” to claim what is yours by Law.

Phi Beta Iota: There is a need for a Global Currency Reset (GCR) and President Trump appears to be intensely focused on this, no doubt energized by the fact that China and Russia and the others members of the BRICS have been planning this for over a decade. The GCR appears to have been turned into a scam in which thousands earnestly believe that Iraqi dinar, Vietnamese dong, and Zimbawean “Zim” are going to be exchanged at face value (i.e. a million dollar “zim” purchased for a few dollars as a collectors item would be worth a “new” US million dollars for real). At the same time there is clearly something major happening in deep background that appears to include President Trump’s successful recovery of perhaps $15 trillion of the stolen wealth from the banks, and plans to introduce a gold or precious-metals back dollar. The President is reported to also be thinking about strict control on interest and inflation (he would have to nationalize the Federal Reserve to make that stick) and also a debt jubilee in the USA (3 trillion in student loans, elderly medical debt, and family/small business credit). All easy to do with the right intelligence, counterintelligence, and armed forces to back it up. We have no direct knowledge but “the whisper” is that all of this is underway.
